Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of its last previous assessment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, if he shall make a sworn statement to the assessor thereof, and if the property moved by him on May 1 of such year is in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, the same shall be not be listed at its tide chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, subject to appeal to the board of tax commissioners, or if between different counties, by the tax commission tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if first herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and subscribe and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a true and complete list of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, or which he shall have acquired since the last preceding assessment; personal property in his possession or under his control, of the class whereof he is required to list for taxation as agent, trustee, guardian, servant, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assignee, officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to list the shares of stock in any joint stock or other capital stock of any company or corporation, if he is required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation thereof.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath, touching the property so listed or required to be listed; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value; and, if such property be in the hands of a receiver, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2033. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper discharge of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 2034. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, whenever required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of taxation, shall knowingly or fraudulently make a false or fraudulent statement, or shall make an oath or affirmation, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2035. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property, except money and personal property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax, is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and in the tax district in which it is located; but, at the rate aforesaid. Each ore deposit in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Each ore deposit in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Each ore deposit in which it is located, but
