Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the principal place of business of the company is located, or the principal or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies to be assessed where property is located. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where situated, in regard to where the principal of other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.37. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric power; place of listing and assessment of personal property. Subdivision 1. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric power for light, heat, or power, having a fixed situs within the limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, except as otherwise provided, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where situated.

The commissioner shall assess such property located in the towns and unorganized territory, and on or before the fifteenth day of November of each year, shall certify to the county auditor of each county in which such property is located the amount of the assessment made against such company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.33. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to be in his company a resident, shall also the value of his property pertaining to his business, and every company shall be required to list for taxation any property the possession of this state, or the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sale thereof, or for purchase or shipment, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.34. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state the value of manufactured, purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being sold, consigned, or shipped, and of all raw material, tools, implements, machinery, or utensils. Every manufacturer and person owning or controlling or retaining of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all tools, implements, machinery, and utensils used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing of such personal property.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one town or district to another town or district in this state from May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he may then reside upon the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state, shall be assessed in the town or district where any person by him on May 1 of such year, in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the place where it is usually provided, if between places in the same county, the place shall be determined by the county auditor, and if between places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation ***.

Sec. 273.25. Lists and returns. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor, if required upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or in his possession or under his control, on some separate statement to be a statement of all personal property in his possession or under his control, or of which he is agent, trustee, administrator, agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity whatever.

Sec. 273.05. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, or any officer of any company, shall not make a full and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to be so examined, or to answer, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.08. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the value thereof, and shall make a return thereof, and shall add to such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by the assessor to make a return of property, may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter in, upon, into any dwelling, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 610.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, or which is made in any manner or under any law of assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement touching any fact or matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. New classification of property for taxation. Subdivision 2. Every property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax, shall be and hereby is classified for purpose of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 3. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not subjected to further manufacture, class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the family or household for the common benefit of all, or the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" * * * and all livestock, except as provided in class three "b" * * * and all buildings and structures used for agricultural purposes and all tools, implements, machinery, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements, machinery, and utensils used in manufacturing except as provided by class three "c" * * * and all buildings and structures assessed as personal property and situated upon land of the State of Minnesota, or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any person, firm, or company, or corporation, or any other person under contract or agreement, or otherwise, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 19 per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that such agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxation.

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, machinery, and all farm buildings and structures, except those specifically classified in class three "b" and class 3a, shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $10.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of 7½ cents per mile, for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1966 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
