A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

_____

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all personal property belonging to, or held or controlled, in his or otherwise contracted by him or agent or attorney, ***.

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by his trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 273.25. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All engines, boilers, machinery, tools, implements, and other personal property, sawing machines, reaping apparatus of machines of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of farm property, or the principal part thereof, is a non-resident of the town where the farm is located, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and other personal property of a railroad company located upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such railroad company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting oil, gasoline, or other petroleum products, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system of mains, pipes and equipment attached thereto, of pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas or other petroleum products by pipe lines, shall be listed and assessed in the county where the same is taxable. This subdivision shall not apply to the assessment of the products transported through the pipe lines nor to the times of local distribution of such products by such companies. Companies engaged in distributing gas to consumers at retail nor in pipe lines used by the owner thereof to supply natural gas or other petroleum products to its plant or plants, shall on or before the first day of November, in the county in which the office of such company is located, or on or before the fifteenth day of November, in the county in which such personal property is located, file with the auditor of such county, the amount of such personal property assessed against such company in such district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies which be listed and assessed in the town or district where such property is located. Personal property of electric light companies, shall be listed and assessed in any city, village, or borough in this state which shall be listed and assessed, if situated, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric power; place of listing and assessment of personal property with situs outside of corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Subdivision 1. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and other persons or companies engaged in the business of furnishing electric power with situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transformer and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, of such companies, located in unincorporated villages, cities and boroughs, except distribution lines located as provided in Sections 273.40 and 273.41, shall be listed with the town in which such property is located. Taxable in the county where situated. To remember shall assess such property at the percentage of true and full value fixed by law in the county on or before fifteen day of November, shall certify to the auditor of such county in which such property is located the amount of the assessment against such company in such district in such county.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants, Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list the property of his principal, the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, and which by law no interest in such property, and derive no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state the value of all articles purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used in whole or in part in the manufacturing, processing, fabricating, modifying, or refining. Every manufacturer and person conducting a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his personal property, stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of decedents shall be listed and assessed in the town, city, village, or borough and at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a ward of a guardian, guardian shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business before the appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Transfer between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall be assessed in the county, town or district 1 of such part in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt in the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed under this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place of listing shall be determined by the assessor and the county board of equalization; and if between different places, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon request of the assessor, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on March 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of all property held by him as agent or in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity.

Sec. 273.26. Information under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person during property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, shall not give a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to the best information he can obtain.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall estimate the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall furnish to such person, upon demand a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may examine property, dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property, dwellings, etc. may when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter upon any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 290.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, shall willfully make any misleading or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classed. Every tract or parcel of real property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any special exemption or other law, is hereby classified for purposes of taxation, assessing or other law, as follows:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnace, and all products of the blast furnace, whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, reaping apparatus of machines of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class one and shall be valued and assessed at 33 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided for class three "A" and class three "B," stocks of merchandise and materials together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactured materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, except as provided for class one and as provided for class three "A" and all real estate which, as regards character and density or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural, except as provided for classes one and three "A" and shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "A" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of the full and true value thereof. ***

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, silk cocoons, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural products in the hands of the producer, and all farm tools and agricultural implements shall constitute class three "B" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 7. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1950 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
