According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book

J. Chamion County Auditor.

Extracts from laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1992. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, must list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed to it), stock, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, franchise, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list property held in the name of his principal, if the property is personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent, guardian, or trustee of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys belonging to any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town, city, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant, or manufacturer, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on; but logs, lumber and timber cut from lands within, and adjacent to the boundaries of, this state, and all other personal property to be transported out of this state shall be sold and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1 and all logs, lumber and timber cut from lands within and adjacent to the county where thereon shall be paid all the state ad valorem taxes are paid, of the taxing district where such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1923. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, furniture, jewelry, musical instruments, sewing machines, and other personal property of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal service, pleasure, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the necessary and fixtures therein, situated on the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, and operated by such company, and all such property shall be assessed and taxed as personal property in the town or district listed and assessed in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and the power companies, outside of cities and villages. Personal property of such companies shall be assessed where situated in the town or district where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1921. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of such companies shall be assessed where situated in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of doing business by the assignee.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first found; and the property of such person shall be listed in such manner as the assessor shall direct.

Sec. 2018. Property left in one place 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2019. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing personal property or where it cannot be ascertained with reasonable certainty if between places in the county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1, or the owner of all personal property of which he shall have the control, or all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, or other officer, accounting officer, partner, factor, agent, or other capacity; but no agent or attorney shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation, which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examiniates under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property, has not, of, for any other reason, listed the property, or has not made a full and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure, he may estimate the property from such information as he may obtain, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested by any person, he shall make a full and complete list of property in the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10008. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1), and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located either in whole or in part, shall be assessed and taxed in the name of the taxpayer of record, class (1), class "B" (1b) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore apart of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land in which it is located, shall be determined and assessed separately, and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal service, pleasure, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class one (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class four (4), all household goods and furniture, taken together with the furniture and fixtures and stocks, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided in class three "A" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class four (4), shall constitute class two (2) and shall be assessed class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-three and one-third (23⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and stock, all household goods and furniture, all farm implements, farm implements and machinery used by the owner in his agricultural pursuit, and constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided in class four (4) and not held for sale, all horses, mules and stock, all household goods and furniture, all farm implements and machinery used by the owner in his agricultural pursuit, and constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Provided, that in lieu of class three (3) and class three "A" (3a) and class three "B" (3b) the assessor may elect to place any tract of land in class three (3) hereof, provided, further, that the total assessed value of any tract of land shall not be less than $1,000.00 full and true value of such tract of land, real estate used for the purpose of a homestead, or personal property used for the purpose of a homestead, shall be valued at $1,000.00 full and true value, and shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided in class one (1) and class four (4) and all improvements on platted real estate, except as provided in class four (4) shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of $1,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class four (4) and shall be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the payment of such part of state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Provided, that the homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, except that said tract of land of $1,000.00 full and true value shall be subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the payment of such part of state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining interest of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class three (3) shall be valued at ten (10) per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1686, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district, he shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation, for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
