A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Brunner
County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing thereto, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1990. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the state, shall list all personal property in his possession or ownership, joint stock or other associations, corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, credits, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise disposed of by him as agent, or otherwise on account of any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, shall be listed by the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is held in trust or for sale or rent, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the treasury of the county where such taxes shall be collected, in the same manner and with such taxes shall be levied upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the crops of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not belong to the owner of the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property of a family, not exceeding in value the sum of $300 for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1932, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled, or operated by such company, shall be assessed, listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the company.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated and taxes thereon shall be paid into the principal or other place of business of said company in the state.

Chap. 206, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated and taxes thereon shall be paid into the principal or other place of business of said company in the state.

Sec. 2013. Personal property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Persons moving between May and July. The owner of personal property, moving from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, but if he is not called upon by the assessor, a person living less than three days another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property listed in a state.

Sec. 2015. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place of listing personal property or where it does not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined as not inconsistent and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2032. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, when demanded, a list of all the property, real and personal, required by law to be listed on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all property required by law to be assessed in other taxing districts in this chapter he is required to list for taxation, as trustee or attorney, executor, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or for any other person, or any person shall be required to list, in the aforesaid any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation, and shall verify the same and return it to central and property for taxation purposes.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not given a full and complete list thereof, he may examine such person upon his oath, respecting the amount of the property he is required to list; and the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and assess the same at such sum as he believes it to be worth, and such assessment, when confirmed, he shall sign and deliver to the county assessor a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to make a tax or assessment, may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, outdoor, or structure, and view the same and the premises.

Sec. 10956. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who shall make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent statement, or who, being authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which shall be false or which he has reason to believe to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to ad valorem property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax in lieu thereof, shall be classified as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value, if unmanufactured at the time of and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this section. In the case of iron ore which for any reason may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore separately from the land, the value of the land and the ore shall be assessed as land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property of a family, not exceeding in value the sum of $300 for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1932, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, except as provided by class three "b" (3b), manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "c" (3c) and all implanted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery, except as provided by class three "c" (3c) and except as under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1932, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All implanted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class three "a" (3a) and class three "c" (3c) hereof, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3c. All stocks of merchandise, except as provided by class 3d, $6,000.00, in whole and full value in excess of the same shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "c" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full value thereof, where the value, if the true and full value is in excess of $2,000.00 and if the true and full value is in excess of $2,000.00 and where the property shall be figured at 20% per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
