A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

J. Swanson

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Persons Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and all other property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, annuities, and all other property controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all money loaned or invested by him, or on account or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the state shall be assessed in the county, town, or district where and listed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county and such taxes shall be a lien on the same as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien on such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where such property is located, if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1929. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for the purpose of furnishing or equipping, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence not exempt under the provisions of chapter 305, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc. on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and other buildings and fixtures, on the right of way and land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, village or borough in which such property shall be listed and assessed when not situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 305, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies serving a fixed city or village or other municipality or city of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, or with any other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of the appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moving between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, and if such property shall be removed after the date first mentioned and before the time fixed, shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has paid for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Property listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, it shall be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, if between counties in different counties, or between different districts, the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if set forth herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a full, fair and complete list of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, including all personal property in his possession in the manner of his business, and all other property which he is required to list for taxation as agent, as trustee, guardian, servant, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in such statement any portion of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation of such company.

Sec. 2023. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath touching the property so listed, or claimed to be listed; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value, and if such list of such property shall be ascertained, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2033. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, office, house, building, or elevator, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 2034. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of taxation, shall knowingly or fraudulently, or with intent to defraud, make any statement as to any assessment, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2085. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property, except money and personal property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate above stated. If the real estate in which it is located be other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. If such real estate be owned by the owner of the iron ore or known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be separately assessed and listed and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the owner.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 305, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. All horses, stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) and class four (4) hereof, and all property provided for classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or agricultural pursuit, not exempt under the provisions of chapter 305 for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, not exempt under the provisions of chapter 305, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unpatented real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and, when is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, all property subject to taxation shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and all property exempt shall be figured at 20% per cent.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
