He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property located, issued, or owned by him, or by any other person, as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, or held by him in trust, or for any purpose subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of his estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to any mercantile or manufacturing establishment shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the state, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county, school district, town and of the state as other taxes are paid: Provided, that such logs and timber upon which such taxes are paid shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of any farm or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in this state, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated, and if such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 112, Laws 1929. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, phonographs, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, are exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures, and all scales and weighing machines, belonging to any company, which are not in good faith owned, operated and controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district and taxing district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and if unknown, as "owner unknown."

Chap. 206, Laws 1931. Property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed place of business in villages or boroughs in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1931. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of villages and boroughs in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the county, town, or district; provided, that such property within the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor and guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assessment and collection. Personal property in the hands of an assessor shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one county, town, or district to another between May and July, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon to list his property, and if moved into this state from another state before such date shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has been taxed for the tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In cases of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it embraces more than the assessor provided, if between places in the same county, the county auditor, if between counties, shall be referred to the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, whose decision determined in either case shall be as binding as if first hearing.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of the property he shall assess and deliver to him on May 1 of the current year personal property in his possession, in the manner of all personal property in his possession, in the manner of all property in this chapter provided, and the assessor shall administer to such person, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or other person, the following oath: "The property of your client is received in trust by his statement and place of your capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and true statement of the property, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of any property omitted or not listed, and, if such person shall refuse to make full answer to such inquiries, the assessor may report the facts to the person or his official superior or his best information and belief.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and the same shall be assessed and charged as he believes to be the true value thereof. If so requested, he shall show and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the list of personal property and valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1987. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property may enter any dwelling, store, or other building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, report, or affidavit, shall knowingly make any false or fraudulent statement or representation of a material fact or statement, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value shall be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other license tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class of its kind and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of its true and full value. If mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, or upon which it is situated, or upon which it is located, or upon which it is located other than the real estate, the real estate to which it is located other provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1925, and shall be valued at ten (10) per cent of its true and full value thereof.

Class 2. Agricultural lands, including farm dwellings and farm buildings, and farm machinery, used for the sowing and harvesting of the crops, shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 2a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer for agricultural sale, all farm implements and farm tools, implements and machinery used for the sowing and harvesting of the crops, shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 2b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1), hereinbefore, and class three (3) hereinafter, shall constitute class "2b" and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 2c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereinbefore and class three (3) hereinafter, shall constitute class "2c" and shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereinafter.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereinbefore and class three (3) hereinafter, shall constitute class "2c" and shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereinafter.

Class 3. Real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereinbefore, and class two (2) hereinbefore, shall constitute class "3" and shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereinafter.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining net indebtedness and net bonded debt limitations now established by statutes, the assessor shall use 20 and class 3c property shall be figured at 20% per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All personal property, except as provided in the preceding classes shall constitute class "4" and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
