Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.02. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney.

3. The property of a minor, idiot, or insane person shall be listed by his guardian or by a person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whom bond is to be held in trust, by the executor of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as mentioned.

Sec. 273.28. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, pianos, phonographs, and all other personal effects, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside on the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good repair and operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.35. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated ***.

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property, including poles, wires, and other fixtures of electric light and power companies, and all other individuals and partnerships supplying electric power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property as aforesaid, shall include in such statement and list, the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property as aforesaid, shall include in such statement and list, all goods or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all tools, machinery, implements, and utensils, such as shall not be included in any such process, except such fixtures as are considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of taking before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor after such removing into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property in the county, town, or district where he is the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it should be listed as in this chapter provided, it is hereby made the duty of county, town, and city assessors respectively, to be determined by county, town, and city boards of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement, of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall also list all personal property which he is required to list, personal property in his possession or under his control, or which he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or as agent or representative of a corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and belief.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list; to make. Failure to obtain a list of property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter premises, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, shall willfully make any statement or shall willfully conceal, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Hoop iron, cast iron, and other scrap metal, and all other tangible personal property not subject to any property tax, or other tax in lieu of any property tax and not subject to any property tax or other tax in lieu of any property tax, shall be assessed in the manner provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall be classified, assessed and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. If mined, it shall be assessed if it is not underground workings and if it is stockpiled subsequent to August 1 of the year next preceding May 1, and which contains phosphorus in excess of .100 per cent, dried analysis, or which is classified by the iron ore trade as siliceous, Manganiferous, Nesabi Bessemer, or Mesaba Bessemer, or which is mined by open pit methods in accordance with good engineering practices and which operation requires concentration either by crushing or screening or both to make it suitable for commercial blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and placed in stockpile subsequent to August 1 of the year next preceding May 1 and next preceding May 1 for sale or for shipment to a place outside the state, or to a place within this taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still unmined, and thereafter such ore so stockpiled shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore, as otherwise provided by law. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed as provided by law. The aggregate of the two shall be called "b," and four, as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately. The aggregate of the two shall be called "a" and four, as the case may be.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property of a family residence, shall be classified, valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "A" and class three "B," stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "C" and all real estate, which is rural in character and devoted or available to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by classes one and three "b" shall be classified, valued and assessed at 40 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * * * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 30 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
