ASSESSMENT & TAX LIST

Moose Lake

1936

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn. APR 15 1936.

Mr. Oliver Flategoff Assessor of the Town of Moose Lake

According to the requirements of law I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Simon County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Persons Property of persons residing thereto, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1988. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the state, shall list all the personal property owned by him, or in stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), in the county, town, or district where he resides, and shall list all such personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by the guardian or other person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is permanently located in other places and designed to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all such property shall be paid into the different funds of the county and taxing district in and of the state as other taxes are paid. Such property shall be assessed at its cash value, and shall not be removed beyond the bounds of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, the property shall be assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be exempt from taxation. Such exempt property shall not be listed and assessed in the district where the owner is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled, or operated by such railroad company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed place in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the town or district where principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 256, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any town, city, village, or borough in this state, other than those to be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of the last residence of such person.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of filing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district in this state to another county, town, or district, shall be assessed in the place in which he first resided upon the day of his removal; nevertheless if he removes from another state between said May and July, the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has paid a tax for the current year on the property in the state from which he came.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the state, it shall be listed and assessed in the place where it shall be determined by the county board of equalization; if between different counties, or places in different counties, it shall be listed and assessed in the county and town where determined in either case shall be as nearly as it can be done.

Sec. 2020. Blanks to be furnished. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by the county auditor, a statement of his property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall also make separate statements in like manner of all property which he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or otherwise, and shall also make a separate statement of any property he received in behalf in his capacity as a stockholder in any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required by law to list and return as its capital and property taxable in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed all the property belonging to such person, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to answer such questions when asked by the assessor, he shall add the amount of such property to his official according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and the value thereof, as nearly as he can, himself as he believes to be the true value thereof, and, if requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer entitled to make an assessment of property, or any person necessary to the proper performance of his duties, may enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10506. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, with intent to defraud, shall make or cause to be made any false or untruthful or by law to be made a basis of taxation or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement in any tax or assessment list which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property shall be assessed at several property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or income tax, and the tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class of the iron ore. It shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. Provided, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which iron ore is located situate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this section. The value of the iron ore in such case may be determined by assessing any part or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the real estate in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be the assessable value of the property.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt from taxation under Chapter 256, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "A" (3a), stocks of merchandise of every description together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery not exempt from taxation, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "A" (3a) hereof, shall constitute class three "B" (3b). Class three "A" (3a) shall be valued and assessed at one-third (33⅓) per cent of true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all implements and seed used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery not exempt from taxation, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) under the provisions of Chapter 256, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at one (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at one-third (33⅓) per cent of the full and true value. Provided, if the true and full value of such homestead is in excess of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class "B and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of such homestead is in excess of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining values of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net indebtedness of any municipality or district or by charter, municipal and town boards, as provided by Section 2 of Chapter 256, per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof shall be used.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
