DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

Cass County, Minn., 1940

Frances Slater Assessor of the Town of Farrey

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1940, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Ramon County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock or interest in other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not listed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, securities, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise employed by him in the business of his principal, on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due and owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, if he have any within this state, else by his parent.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchants.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed in the township, city, county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed in the township, city, or village where such is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the county where such logs and timber are cut; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the state, of the taking district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such logs shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all taxes shall be paid.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the owner of such farm does not reside in this state, such property is to be assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, mechanical devices, and other articles of household personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually located.

Sec. 2028. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2032. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the county without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 356, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in any city, village or borough outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be moved from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and June 30, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor to list his property; and if he come into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he shall be assessed, if such property shall appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it consists of money, or of property pertaining to a business, or of an estate, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if it had been so.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, of which he is the owner, or which he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law is required to be listed by others than the owner, as agent, trustee, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for assessed, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not given the value of the property in the thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to answer, or to discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain such list, the assessor shall ascertain the quantity, quality, and amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall also make and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement signed by him of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings. The assessor, authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property.

Sec. 10390. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, shall willfully make any material statement which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Land, whether owned or unowned shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If assessed, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate to which it is located, but at the time afforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located under the provisions of class three (3), class "N" (3N) and class four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is located, the value of the surface shall be determined by the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessor value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, mechanical devices, and other articles of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery not herein specifically mentioned, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "N" (3N) hereof, shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the producer in the production of agricultural products shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00 the amount in excess of the sum of $4,000.00 shall be assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and the first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to a lien for the payment of state taxes, and shall be subject to all of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "C" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at forty per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of the sum of $4,000.00 shall be assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to a lien for the payment of state taxes, and shall be subject to all of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net debt limits of municipalities, the assessor shall add to the value of class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 25% per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors or on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
