DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Fred Brown Assessor of the Town of Lake Shore

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Sherman

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Persona Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1990. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is assessable in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned, or in his possession, charge, or under his agency or attorney, on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property appertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed in the town or district where such lands are situated and such taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taking district and of the state as provided by law. Logs and timber so taken shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other property, not appertaining to a farm, shall be not realty therein, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the owner of such property be a non-resident, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such firm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing apparatus of members of the family, and all personal property used by the members of the family and all persons, or for the furnishing or furnishing of a dwelling, or for board or lodging under the provisions of Chapter 180, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2007. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of a railroad company, and used in the business of such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where such property is situated, if in Swan, if in Korea, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 2016. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2024. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of such assignee.

Sec. 2027. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be moved from one town or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into a town or district after the time when assessors shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is just for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2015. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can not be ascertained to the satisfaction of the assessor, or be in dispute among the place for listing, such property if between place in the territorial by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed by law.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe to the assessor blank furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also include in such statement the value of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, and no person shall be required to include in his statement any property owned by him which he shall make satisfactory proof which it is entitled to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or the agent, attorney, or representative of such person, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property to be listed and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2022. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of taxable property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount as he believes to be the proper amount, assess the same at such amount, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 10256. Assessors, boards of equalization, etc., are authorized by law to assess property for taxation, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, etc., or any officer necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, outbuilding, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10256. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made on a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, shall knowingly make a false statement of a material fact as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2023. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value shall be assessed. All real and personal property subject to taxation, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 1. Land, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value, exclusive of the value of improvements and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located after the same has been platted, shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "a" (3a) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is located, the assessor shall include value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be assessed as provided in this section and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing apparat of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of a home of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 212, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturing machinery, implements of husbandry, and all other tangible and movable personal fixtures or chattels, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), shall constitute class three (3) and class three (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all farm implements, implements and machinery used for purposes in agricultural pursuit, and except under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three (3) shall constitute class four (4). The portion of a homestead, assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $5,000.00 of any homestead shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $5,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuation, the assessed valuation of homesteads and not based debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
