3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent, the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except that the stock of goods, wares, and merchandise and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all grain thereof shall be paid into the state treasury for the county where such grain is found, and the assessor of such county and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed for taxes in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and appropriate personal or family use, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of chapter 350, Laws of 1933, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, leased, or operated by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of such company.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in the state shall be listed and assessed where situated and assessed by the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1935. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in the state shall be listed and assessed where situated and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where such guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property acquired between May and July. The owner of personal property, removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, but it shall be paid upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property is to be paid for tax of the current year on his property in some other state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing and assessing shall be the place fixed by the tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, on the prescribed blank, a list of all property taxable in his personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all property owned by him as a trustee, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or in this character he is required to list for taxation, as trustee, attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or for any other person, firm, or corporation, and he shall make and subscribe the statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation, which he is required to list and return in his capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed all the property belonging to or held by him, or any other person under such his control, or for which he is required to list; and, if he shall discover under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and assess the same at such sum as he believes is proper, and assess the same at such sum, and shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to make a tax or assessment, may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the premises thereon.

Sec. 10056. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, being an officer or agent of any person, or being an officer or agent authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of any matter or thing which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax in lieu thereof, is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value, if unmanufactured, and if manufactured and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this section. The ore in such real estate shall be estimated by lease or by royalty, or by such other method as the iron ore may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the value of the other real estate in such tract or lot shall be the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and appropriate personal or family use, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) hereof, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, except as provided, and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five and one-third (25⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used in the production of agricultural products, except under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof, if the true and full value is in excess of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
