Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between the first day of May and the last day of July, shall list the property in the place called upon for the assessor. A person moving into any county, town, or district from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1, in the county, town, or district where the assessor may be called upon, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, it shall be listed in the county in the place provided. If between places in the same county, in the place where the county board of equalization and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization and assessing shall be determined by the place in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation ***.

Sec. 273.35. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1, in the county, town, or district in which the assessor is called upon, in the manner of all personal property in his possession or control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, administrator, executor, guardian, or in any other capacity receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the property required to be listed, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make such examination, or shall refuse to be so examined, the assessor shall make such person or his principal accounting

Section 273.65. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and enter the same in the assessment roll, and shall add and enter to the tax value thereof. When completed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter facilities, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, may enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of taxation, or in any report or return, shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. New classified. All real and personal property, except as otherwise provided, shall be classified in the following classes, subject to such further classification for purpose of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Unless hereinafter joined or assimilated shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Subdivision 3a. All dried products of the blast and open hearth furnaces shall constitute class two, unless hereinafter joined or assimilated and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, and other personal property used by the head or members of the family and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, personal property actually used by the owner for the furnishing or equipment of a dwelling, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. * * *

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d," stocks and poultry, and all livestock, except as provided by class three "b" and class three "c," machinery, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, shall be valued and assessed as personal property and attached buildings and structures and Mortgages of the United States Government which is exempt by the laws of the United States Government, shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof, but not necessarily agricultural tax shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that grain in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxation. * * *

Subdivision 6. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes, except for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, machinery and livestock, shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6a. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes, except for agricultural purposes, shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.04. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $7.50 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of seven cents per mile, and each board of review member the sum of $6.00 per day and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1963 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
