Cass County, Minn., April 9 1929.

Chas. Sanford Assessor of the Town of Pelican

According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

A. A. Cater County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the shares of such stock are not assessed to the corporation in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of the principal, all property held by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all property delivered subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property which shall be listed in the town of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be limited to the stock in trade and goods manufactured: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands owned and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and if such logs and timber be found in more than one town or district of the taxing district, and if the state or other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, and all other articles of household personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually located.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the right of way of railroad companies, and used in the business of operating and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where such property is located, if the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, and all personal property brought in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and of telephone companies located outside the corporate limits of cities and villages, shall be listed and be listed and assessed by the township tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2017. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2018. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, if he shall make oath that he has not moved into this state from another state between said dates, and that the property owned by him on May 1 of such year is in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the assessor that such tax of the current year on the property is another state.

Sec. 2013. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by tax commissioner; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2022. List to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, under oath, a list of all the property, real and personal, of all personal property owned by him, as herein provided, or owned by him. He shall also make separate statements, in like manner, of all property held by him as agent or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation, an account or statement of all credits, bonds, bills, or other evidences of indebtedness, accounting office, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, of persons shall be required to include in his statement any share of such property, credit, or other evidence of indebtedness, subjected to the tax and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2026. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the property, or that himself, or any examiner with whom he may be associated, has not been given the information required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person at his personal knowledge to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2028. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same, as aforesaid, as he believes to be the true value thereof. When assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2207. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer assessor in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the premises appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of assessing or collecting taxes, shall knowingly or with intent to defraud, make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2002. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value to be listed. All property, real and personal, subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax in lieu thereof, shall be classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. It unmined, it shall be assessed at the value of the land in which it is located, but if mined, but other than the ore, shall be assessed at the value of the land in which the ore is located, but if mined and the ore shall be in stockpiles, the same may be assessed and taxed or let of real estate in which iron ore is located, and the value of the land in which it is located, and the stockpile of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and assessed in the manner of contracts of the two shall be numbered class two (2).

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, and all other articles of household personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all kinds, and all other personal property, except as provided for in non-classified property and manufacturing machinery, tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided for class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statues of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Kind Friend Doctor — If you will look on last years assessment book you will find this parcel of land assessed to Frank Tuck at that time and I think it is assessed at 12 for the NE and 12 for the NW ¼. I had it assessed at 6 & 10.- before but last year I raised it as they put up a cabin there and there is quite a considerable timber on it. Also note on my book the address of E.W. Raymond is Checked care of Roy Evans shop is a mistake his address is E.W. Raymond Chariton Iowa. I found out yesterday Yours truly C Sanford
