DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Frank L. Allen Assessor of the Village of Pillager

According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Simmons

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1954. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1956. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property which constitutes or corporation is not assessed in this state), and all other personal property, wherever located, furniture, vehicles, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, owned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as guardian or trustee, of any other person, or as agent or trustee of moneys bequeathed subject to his order, check or draft; and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person acting such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of their agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2002. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of persons engaged in business as a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and designed to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all logs and timber so cut and found in the taxing district of any town of the taxing district and of the state in other places are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien may be enforced against the brokers of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in two or more towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal effects owned by members of the family residing in such dwelling house, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1932, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2031. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses for the storage of grain, operated by any railroad company instead of any railroad company when one not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as personal property in the town or district where situated, to be assessed to the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2032. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, not in the hands of receivers in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, or without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed price outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be assessed and taxed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian is located, if in this state, and in every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of such assignee or receiver.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, if he shall make a sworn statement of the facts into the state from another state, the person and affidavit that the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on his property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where in case same county, the place of listing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and the place determined by it in case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make an oath and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property which he is required to list for taxation; and he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or as guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or in any other fiduciary capacity, and no person shall be required to include in any such statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return in its relative and proportion for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examinations under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for him made a full, fair, and correct statement of such property, or any person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of such property, the assessor may examine such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall make a statement of the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the property so assessed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may examine dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property, or any person duly appointed by the proper authority, may, in the performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 12956. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by any law of this state, shall knowingly impose or attempt to impose on any assessor, who shall before make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value are to be assessed. All property in this state is hereby subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other like tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) hereof and shall be assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value, if mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate fixed for this class. If not mined, it shall be assessed as if it was the real estate in which it is located, but subject to the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and three "c" (3c) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore contained in such tract or lot of real estate shall be determined and the assessable value of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal effects owned by members of the family residing in such dwelling house, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1932, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "b" (3b), stocks of merchandise of all sorts whether wholesale or retail, except as provided in class three "c" (3c), raw materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, vehicles, furniture or otherwise, except as provided by class one (1) and class two (2) hereof, and all property not specifically listed in classes one (1) and class "b" (2b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or owner thereof, or in the hands of any person who shall have purchased for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, but except as provided in class three "b" (3b) and class three "c" (3c) of this section, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided in class one (1) hereof and, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof, provided, if such real estate shall exceed in value the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

For the purposes of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, the value of such homestead shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the foregoing classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
