DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., 1939

L. M. Bennett Assessor of the Village of Pillager

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1939, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

L. Simmons County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing thereto, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person according it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the same are not taxed to such companies or corporations), all shares of stock, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise disposed of by him as agent, attorney, or trustee, or account of, any other person, company, or corporation, all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or if he have no guardian, by his parent or trustee.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed in the town, city, or district, county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and such taxes thereon shall be paid from time to time as the same become due and payable, and if the state or other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm extends into two or more towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property owned by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed and permanent place of business in any city or village, shall be assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies not having a fixed place of office in the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2015. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, upon the property so removed, and shall pay taxes upon the same from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district where it was located on that day, and shall be assessed in the manner that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or, where it cannot be ascertained by the assessor, the place of assessment, the property shall be the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out, and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, owned by him, or held by him as agent, or trustee shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law is taxable to the persons for whom he is agent, attorney, or trustee; guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as to capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the property of the person, company, or corporation, the person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required by the assessor, the owner of such property shall make oath of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or enclosure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 11206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, shall knowingly make a false statement of any material fact or any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax, shall be listed in the following classes:

Class 1: Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If mined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, if unmined, it shall be assessed in the rule aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this section. In assessing and taxing the ore, it shall be the duty of the assessor and taxer or list of real estate in which ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the assessor and taxer shall make separate entries thereof.

Class 2: All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property owned by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3: Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, stored as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise, raw materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery wherever fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b), all stocks of goods, wares and merchandise, except as provided by class three "c" (3c), and class three "b" (3b) hereof, each constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a: All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or owner, including all live stock, poultry, farm implements and all agricultural machines, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b: All stocks of merchandise, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a hotel, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00 full and true value of such stock of merchandise shall be assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such stock of merchandise shall be exempt from taxation and shall be deducted from the total taxable value of such stock of merchandise, and the balance shall be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c: All stocks of merchandise, except as provided by class (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00 full and true value of such stock of merchandise shall be assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such stock of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead, shall be exempt from taxation and shall be deducted from the total taxable value of such stock of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead, and the balance shall be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 4: All moneys, credits, bonds, bills and notes of all officials based on assessed valuations, and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be taxed at 33⅓ per cent and at per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 5: All property not specifically mentioned in these classes shall constitute class five (5) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if so born kn wn, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
