DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

Cass County, Minn., 1940

Lee M. Bennett Assessor of the Vil. of Pillager

According to the requirements of law, I hereuith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1940, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Ranson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1574. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein,* * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1584. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1585. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock or land which or other companies or corporations (when the same are not taxed to such companies or corporations), all shares in either, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise continued by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft; and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by the guardian, if any, in the county where the ward resides.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent, officer or trustee.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as nearly as may be.

Sec. 1593. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 1595. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed in the town or district where such lands are situated; and if such lands lie in two or more different towns or districts in the county of the cutting district and of the state as other timber are valued, and such value shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all taxes shall be paid thereon.

Sec. 1596. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside therein, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the owner of such livestock or other personal property does not reside and be assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 1598. Lien on household goods. All household goods and personal effects of office and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the manner provided herein.

Sec. 1598. Lien on household goods. All household goods and personal effects of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 1598. Lien on household goods. The personal property of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 1598. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of living of such ward.

Sec. 1598. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business before his appointment.

Sec. 1598. Property moved between May and July. The assessor shall make separate assessments of personal property moved from one town to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon for the assessor. A person moving into a town after the assessor has been therein, shall be assessed for the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 1598. Property in dispute or doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing any personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 1602. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, owned by him, or in his possession or control. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which belongs to any other person, company or corporation, whether as partner, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 1602. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the property with the intent to evade the provisions of this chapter he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 1603. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain the list of any property, the assessor shall estimate the value, the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required so to do by any person, he shall give a written notice to the owner of the aforesaid showing the valuation of the property so fixed.

Sec. 1607. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, outbuilding, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, shall knowingly make a false statement of any material fact, or in any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1293. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any given rate of taxation by law, tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, and if mined, it shall be assessed thereafter. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the land may be assessed. The real estate of all real estate in which iron ore is located, shall be valued and assessed at the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessed value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately from the value of the ore in the assessment roll and books.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for purely domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "b" (3b), stacks of corn-fodder, all stacks of other fodder, and all other farm products, and all farm implements, tools, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b), and all other personal property not specifically listed in classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or owner, including livestock, poultry, and farm implements, tools, and machinery used for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuits, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof: Provided, that if the land and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof: Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of each tract of unplatted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of paying funds for the discharge of bonds and other obligations incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof: Provided, that if such platted real estate is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof: Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that said $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject and be taxed for the purpose of paying funds for the discharge of bonds and other obligations incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the indebtedness and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, the value of class three (3) shall be valued and assessed at forty per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1956, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
