7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, including their stock in trade, shall be listed in the town or district where its business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the state shall be listed and assessed in the town, city, or district and listed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be enforced and collected by the holders of the state certificate of such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town, city or district in which the farm is located; if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, musical instruments, silverware, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 245, Laws of 1923, shall constitute class three "C" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the owner, if known, and if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of the assignee.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one town, city or district to another in which he is first called upon for the assessment, shall be assessed in the town, city or district in which he is first called upon for the assessment. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the town, city or district where the owner resides, the question of the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different towns, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if it were so listed.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe an oath, to be upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, including all such property enumerated in section 1989, and personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, or any other person, company, firm, or by any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2026. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any other person, company or corporation, shall not have made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make such discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property, the assessor shall determine the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person owning the property listed, or the person in charge of the property so listed, a statement showing the number of acres, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwellinghouse, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is received or authorized by law to be made on a basis of knowledge or belief, shall knowingly or recklessly make a false statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1981. Classification and Property. What percentages of full and true value shall be taken. All real and personal property and all real estate, personal property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value, if mentioned, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located shall be valued and assessed at the rate provided for in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "C" (3c) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is located, the assessor shall include in the value of the land of the kind in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, musical instruments, silverware, sewing machines, wearing apparel of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 245, Laws of 1923, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "C" (3c) and all implements and tools, except those provided with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided in class three "C" (3c) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class four (4) and all platted real estate, except as provided in class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all implements and farm machinery necessary for the owner in any agricultural pursuits, except those under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and, when in use for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value, provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and, when in use for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and set bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
