DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., 1940

R. C. Connell Assessor of the Town of Bay River

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1940, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Simon County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1985. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. The property of all age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (not the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all such property belonging to such principal, and under his control or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all money received or paid out by him, and all bonds, notes, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of their agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as mortgagee.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, and of other persons, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and adjacent to, the boundaries of this state, shall be listed and assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1 and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be sold to satisfy and discharge the burden of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such farm is situated; and if such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, washing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of a railroad company, and all other property which shall have accessed and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2009. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light the power companies having a fixed site in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 292, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed site outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business before the assignment.

Sec. 2017. Property sold between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option, and if he neglect to do so, a person owning lots in a state other than another state, for taxes sold delinquent, the property owned by him on May 1 shall be listed in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year in the county, town, or district in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of debt. In case of doubt as to the place where the property of a person should be listed, it shall not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as finally so fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, on the blank provided for the purpose, a list containing all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all such property in his possession or under his control which by tenure, guardian, partnership, agency, or other relation, he is accounting other, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of stock in, or of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property, for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath touching the property so listed, and shall be required so to act; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2022. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same with the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall view and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the list of the property so assessed of the property so listed.

Sec. 2027. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, or any person assisting by the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10366. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, or in making any return, or in any proceeding authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement or return or testimony which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of its true and full value. If mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate herein provided for class one (1). Iron ore not mined in place in this state shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "A" (3a) and four (4) as the iron ore is known to exist in any tract or lot of real estate in which the land in which it is the assessable value of the ore exclusive land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. Household goods, furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually owned and used for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the finally residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "A" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturing machinery, tools and implements, and all other personal and merchandise, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "A" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three "A" (3a) and class four (4) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all milch cows and stock, implements and machinery used for the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three "A" (3a) and class four (4) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that the minimum and full value in the aggregate of any such tract of unplatted real estate shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof, Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and, Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of any and all indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining eligibility of all officials based on population, the population of municipalities shall be determined by the federal decennial census now established by statute or by charter.

Class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1988, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, to stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors or on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
