Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property changing hands between May and July. The owner of personal property moving from one town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said date shall be assessed in the town or district on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the assessor shall fix and assessing shall be determined by mutual agreement of the assessors; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, the county auditors shall determine.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make such statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, which it is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, or may examine such person under oath touching the property which such person has listed or should list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount or value of such property, and assess the same at such amount or value. The clerk of the town or district board of assessors, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.25. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.25. False statement regarding taxes. Every person, whether acting in a ministerial, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to make any statement of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make a false statement in any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Class classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.
