Sec. 1991. Property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2007. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2008. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and intended to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district where from lands of the county taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district, and in the same other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property, connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, the stock and other farm is situated in several towns or districts, the stock and other farm is assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1925. Household goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, domestic personal property used by the owner for personal, family or household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2003. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the lands of any railroad company operated by any such company, shall be assessed and exclusively constituted by such company, shall be listed and assessed as other property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated and shall be subject to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 356, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities, villages and boroughs. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough, or outside of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of the decedent at his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or a receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of his residence or appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, in assessing, a person moving in which he is first called upon to do so, shall list and assess the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has paid tax for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2011. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be assessed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and delivered to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, owned by him, on the day of the current year, provided, also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent, trustee, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, or administrator, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person making property for him to tax, shall not have made a true and complete list thereof, he may, upon such a full, fair, and complete list thereof, be required to make such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make such discovery under oath, the assessor shall add the property of such person to the principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the value of the property so listed, or assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the assessment, showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1977. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any assessor authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10256. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or removing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is false, or omit to state what he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1995. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but if removed therefrom it shall be listed and assessed as personal property after removal. It shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the tax rate applicable to class three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate containing iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore including the land in which it is located, which shall be known as the value of the land, and of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, domestic personal property used by the owner for personal, family or household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided below, all other "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, except as provided by and machinery whether fixtures attached to real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not used for manufacturing purposes, all livestock, poultry, farm implements and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agriculture pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value in money of the sum of $3,000.00 of the assessable value of any such shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided further that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of each tract of platted real estate used for a homestead, exclusive of any other purposes, except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of and to pay the principal and interest of any and all state bonds heretofore incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "c" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value in money of the sum of $4,000.00 of such assessable value of any such platted real estate used for a homestead, exclusive of any other purposes, except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of and to pay the principal and interest of any and all state bonds heretofore incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining ratios of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining taxes limitations and exclusions of taxes as provided and established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at twenty (20) and twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
