Sec. 1986. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessable within the state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list property held in the name of his principal, or other or other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as executor of, any other person, company, or corporation, and credits belonging to persons who may be his principals, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that land out of this state shall be assessed and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed in the town or district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taking district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien on such property wherever found, and such taxes shall be collected beyond the borders of this state until all shall not be collected in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed at the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the town or district where the farm is situated, town or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, and all other articles of household, and all personal property used for the owner for personal and domestic purposes, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2009. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the ground of a railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2010. Personal property of electric light and power companies in villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated (without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 236, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the officers in the township in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Lands of decedents. The personal property of the ward, or of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district, to another between the first day of May and the first day of July, in which he is liable to be assessed upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has paid for tax at the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Places listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation, and when determined in either case shall be so listed and assessed thereafter.

Sec. 2020. Listing blank: Verified. Every person required to list property in this state shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make a separate statement in the manner which he personal property in his possession, and in the manner which he shall make a separate statement of the property which he is entitled, plaintiff, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in such statement property of the capital stock of any corporation or association which it is required to tax in its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed all the property which he should list, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain the list of any person or property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessors may enter dwellings and other enclosures. Assessors, in assessing property for taxation, may, when specifically authorized by the performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1995. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized to be made under the laws of Minnesota, or relating any fact or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
