Wm. Bach Assessor of the Town of Deerfield

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all

Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. E. Pearson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1574. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing thereto, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1584. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1599. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or associations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money hereinafter enumerated, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property loaned, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, including moneys, credits, all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from persons to any such person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body public or corporate, by the proper officer or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as hereinbefore.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the county, town, or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and intended to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district where such logs and timber are, and taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county and town in the same manner as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household goods. All household goods, furniture, pianos, organs, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of a home, or for the furnishing of a residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually located.

Sec. 2010. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which is not leased, but shall be operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies shall be listed and assessed where situated in the city or village, and shall be listed and assessed where situated with regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city or village inside of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of such person at his death.

Sec. 2015. Taxes under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of his residence, or place of appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which he is first called upon by the assessor, in person, or in which he is first called upon by the assessor, in person, or in which he is first called upon by the assessor, in person, or in which he shall make the property represented by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has listed for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where to list personal property, or where it can be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on the day of the assessment. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property held by him as agent or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or otherwise, and of all moneys, credits, and other property belonging to persons which he required to include in his statement; any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation has not made a full, fair, and complete listing of his property, he may issue a full, fair, and complete list thereof, be also empowered to summon such persons under oath in regard to the amount of the property to be required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make such discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property, or such portion or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2022. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value, or sufficient to satisfy the proposed, he shall sign and deliver to the assessor a copy of the assessment, with a description of the property so listed.

Sec. 1597. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1595. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is false in regard to any fact which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1593. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other less tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value, if assessed, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which it is located shall be valued than the city, shall be classified and valued in accordance with the provisions of Section 1593 (Class "B" (2)) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore underneath the surface of the land shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property for the furnishing or equipping of a home, or for the furnishing of a residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three-a (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, tools, implements and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, instruments and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three-a (3a) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all tools, implements and machinery used for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery in use by any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All implements and machinery not provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a business, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of $4,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate used for the purposes of a business shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof, and the balance of such real estate for state purposes, shall be valued and taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of such and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided herein, and hereof and which is used for the purposes of a business, shall constitute class three "c" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) of said act: Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such platted real estate used for the purposes of a business shall be assessed and taxed for the purposes of a business shall be assessed and taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of such and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the limitations and not bonded debt class three "c" (3c) shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and class 3b and class three "c" (3c) shall be valued respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1585, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat upon the warrant of the county auditor. To be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury.
