EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable in any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1998. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (except those of banks and trust companies organized under the laws of this state), money loaned or invested in partnerships, franchises, royalties, and property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or in the name of his principal, all the property of such principal.

2. He shall also list separately and in the name of his principal, all the property and other personal property owned, loaned, or deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys or property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

3. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

4. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

5. The property of a firm or politic or corporate, by the president, or officer thereof.

6. The property of a company, by a partner or agent thereof.

7. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and deadwood from lands without, the state shall be assessed and taxed in the district where found on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and boatmen. The personal property pertaining to the business of a boatman or mariner, moving into or out of the state, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that if such boat shall be in the state on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district to be transported out of the state, it shall be assessed and taxed in the county, town, or district where it shall be on said day, and if not found in the different fixed ports, it shall be assessed and taxed in the county where the taxing district and county of the taxing district and county other taxes are paid, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different fixed ports, and shall be assessed and taxed in the county where found on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district upon such logs and timber, which shall be considered as real estate, and other taxes are paid, and all taxes thereon shall be paid with and

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm does not reside in towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such

Sec. 2003-1. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner, and personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad land. Grain elevators and warehouses, with the property and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company which are not in good order, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or office place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2013-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing in the town or district where of his death.

Sec. 2016. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of the ward of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed where the place of listing before the assignment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1 of any year, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor, or in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2021. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make out and deliver a list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, or trustee, of all property in his possession or under his control, as required by this chapter, he is required to list, and return as capital and property for taxation any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. The assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for regarding the amount of the property he is required to list, and make a full, fair, and complete statement of such property, may examine such person under oath in regard to the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make out and deliver a list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, or trustee, of all property in his possession or under his control, as required by this chapter he is required to list, and return as capital and property for taxation any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2033. Assessor may enter and examine. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter and examine any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10336. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized to be made by law to be made as a basis of issuing or refusing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other less tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the value of a part of the real estate in which it is located, and the rate aforesaid. If mined, it shall be assessed at the value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessed against the land and exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the assessors of the two shall be

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and personal property actually used by the owner, and personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all kinds, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials, and manufactured articles, all tools, implements, machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and not of debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓% of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof. (G. L. 1925, Chap. 259.)
