DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., APR 23 1941.

Elmore E. Dally Assessor of the Town of Fairview

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Simon County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1; and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the state, for all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, by order, check or draft, and credits moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from persons to any such person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by the receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent, officer or trustee.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town, village, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertainable to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district in the different funds of the county taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2005. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of lands or other real estate or property connected with a farm does not reside in the town, village or district in which the farm is situated, the farm is assessed in such town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns, villages or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of residence of the owner is situated.

Chap. 312, Laws 1925. Household goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all kitchen utensils, wearing apparel and bedding for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, poultry, and all other personal property used for the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the lands of a railroad company, operated in good faith owned, controlled and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2007. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the city, village or borough in which the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the assessors in connection in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between counties, towns, or district. If personal property, remaining in the same county, town, or district from the time of assessment in July 1, shall be assessed in either in which it is first called upon for the assessor. A person shall list in this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned in the county, town, or district in which he resides, when he shall make it town or district in which he resides, when he shall make it liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2015. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, if between places in the not be listed as in this chapter provided, the assessors shall be the same county, the place of listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, the property shall be assessed in either case shall be as listing as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or in his charge or control. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property owned by him, or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or in any other fiduciary capacity, and shall include in his statement any shares of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2032. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation shall be of the opinion that the person listing property has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person in his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2037. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof, and the property assessed, he shall also make the value thereof, and the property assessed in proper form, and make the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any assessor authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, warehouse, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 12936. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing a statement any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other less tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

For the purpose of calculating estates of all officials based on assessed valuations and determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c respectively, shall be taken at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1935, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The assessment book of personal property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
