DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., April 9 1929.

D. L. Newman Assessor of the Town of Gould

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

A. A. Cater County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1992. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of the guardian, executor, administrator, or trustee, of any money deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, shall be listed by the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except that the stock of goods of a merchant or manufacturer designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county, town, and school district in which such goods are sold, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such goods and merchandise, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2005. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the owner of such farm does not reside in the state, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 216, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used for domestic purposes, or for the exclusive use of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated, and controlled by such company, shall be assessed as the property of such company, and the property of such company where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the city, village or borough, and the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 356, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a ward, or person under guardianship, shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon for the assessor. A person moving into a county, town, or district after May 1 and before July 1, shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the town, city, village or borough where the owner is, in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, by the county board of equalization of the last preceding tax year, and the determination in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2003. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, or which he shall have in his possession or under his control as personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or as guardian, executor, administrator, or trustee, or in any fiduciary or other capacity, and in such other manner as the assessor shall be required to include in his statement any share or interest in any stock of any company or corporation which is required by law to make and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that any person, company, or corporation has not made a full, fair, and concrete list thereof, he may examine such person, or any officer, agent, or employee of such company, or corporation so listed; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property and shall make a statement of such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so ascertained, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1927. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, store, office, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10336. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis for the assessment of any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or license tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value, and shall be taxed in the same manner with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which there is no iron ore. The value of the iron ore, and the value of the plants of the land in which it is located, and the assessment ratio of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and certified to the county auditor by the auditor of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used for domestic purposes, or for the exclusive use or enjoyment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all manufacturers, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), manufacturing machinery, manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether attached to the realty or not, except as provided for class three "a" (3a) and all unoccupied real estate, except as provided for class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. Land properly and lawfully in use for agriculture purposes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, General Statues of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
