Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

Section Numbers refer to Minnesota Statutes

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all property of which he is the agent, guardian, trustee, assignee, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or fiduciary. ***

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, shall be listed by the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator. *

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, be listed in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.26 Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner shall reside thereon.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property, where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, jewelry, instruments, sewing machines, and other articles of adornment or use in the family, and all personal property owned by the owner for the use of his family, and all articles for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of every person engaged in business as a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. ***

Sec. 273.30. Farm property, where listed. When the owner of livestock or other personal property employed on a farm, or of real estate thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated, but if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of residence of the owner is situated.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc. so called. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the line of a railroad, operated and used for a public or quasi public purpose, operated and maintained continuously for a year, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of pipeline companies engaged in the operation of pipelines for transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products * * * shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline and other equipment, of pipeline companies engaged in the operation of pipelines for transporting natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products by compression, shall be listed and assessed in the county where situated. This subdivision shall not apply to the commodities that are transported through the pipelines not in the form of gas or petroleum products, or to pipelines used for the transportation of such products for its consumers or shall merely be the business of distribution by the owner of such products to its consumers, or shall merely be the business of distribution of natural gas or other petroleum products by the owner, or shall be a transportation system of such products as defined in the act of March 3, 1887 and for resale to others. On or before the fifteenth day of November, the assessor shall certify to the auditor of each county, the amount of such personal property situated in each county, each company to each district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where located, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies to be assessed in the town or district where located. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.37. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric power; place of listing and assessment of personal property with situs outside corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric light and power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment situated thereon, having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, except distribution lines (and as provided in Section 273.42) shall be listed and assessed in the office of the Commissioner of Taxation in the county where situated. Upon the assessment of such lines and such property at the percentage of assessment of the value thereof, as provided in Section 273.42, on or before November, shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such property is located, the amount of the assessment made against each company and property in such county.

Sec. 273.38. Merchants' Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property consigned to his consignees as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles purchased, received, or in process of manufacture, or being held for sale in whole or in part, by any person of manufacturing or selling, or both, in this state. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment shall list the value of the part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of the death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of doing business in the assignment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in the place he left or the place he shall reside in, upon the return of this side from county assessor prepared and blank sent to the town every owner by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district, and the owner shall return the same to the county assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the town, district, or county where the owner resides, the same shall be listed for tax and assessed shall be into the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation ***.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property shall make and subscribe a statement of the property upon blank furnished by him a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also state the value of all property held by him as agent, or in which he has possession or control, or in which which,  he is responsible for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.05. Examination under oath. Wherever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and honest statement of the property required to be listed, or in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may, by summons, examine such person or his principal accounting to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.08. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he shall find the same to be worth, and the property so listed, he shall call and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 272.05. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to ascertain the property to be taxed, enter any dwelling, house, or building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.15. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Class classified. All real and personal property either in whole or in part, shall be classified for purpose of ad valorem taxation of other law as is hereby classified in paragraphs of this section and subdivisions.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Class 2. Blast furnaces of the blast and open hearth furnace kind, whether operated or not, and all and any and further enumerated shall constitute class 2, and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 3. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, jewelry, instruments, sewing machines, and other articles of adornment or use in the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. * * *

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided all crops together and class three "A" stocks of merchandise or manufactured articles, shall constitute class three "A" stocks of merchandise or manufactured articles and manufactured articles, all tools, implements, machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided for class four, and all other personal property not specifically enumerated as other property and situated in the land of the state or elsewhere, except as provided for class four, shall constitute class three "A" and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "A" and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that grain in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxation. *

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and other animals used for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in the business of farming, shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4 (d). Property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four "d" and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.08. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service: the sum of $10.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of 7½ cents per mile, for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1966 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
