DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Reuben Hagens Assessor of the Town of Maple

According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1994. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1996. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, and all personal property in his own right, or held in trust, or as guardian, executor, administrator, or other fiduciary, or as agent or attorney, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due or owing to any person, company or corporation.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property intrusted, owned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or subject to any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys so controlled subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

6. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, and the personal property used in connection therewith and designed to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where the business is carried on, and if the taxes shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be in lieu of all other taxes on such property, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2004. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated; provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 218. Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family residence, tools of a mechanic, the property of the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence not exempt under the provisions of Section 2000 of Laws of 1923, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are operated by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages, Personal property of electric light and power companies in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the town or district of said company, in the place for principal or other place of business of said company, as required by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed where the decedent last resided at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assessor and receivers. Personal property in the place of business or elsewhere shall be listed and assessed at the place of business or other place.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another county, town, or district in this state, shall be assessed in either of the places in which he may reside for the assessment. A person moving into this state from another state, or country, or province, shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that he is assessed shall be in full for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where property lies in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place where real or personal property or where it ought to be listed as in this chapter provided, the assessor, county auditor, county assessor, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different towns in one county, or different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and such place determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor a list of all property, real and personal, and a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of all property, real and personal, held by him possessed or under the control which by law he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or as corporation officer, partner, factor, or agent, or otherwise; and of the central stock exchange, provided in this statement any share owned in the central stock exchange, and the name and its place in this state.

Sec. 2021. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and assessed the property, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property, real or personal, owned by such person, and shall refuse to make full answer or his criminal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of the property, the assessor shall ascertain the true amount and value of such property, and assess the property so as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, the property shall be subject to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may assess property. If any person so required by law to assess property for taxation shall neglect or refuse to make proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10396. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, authorized by a statement, oral or written, which is required or any tax or assessment, or who, on behalf of himself or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and assessed the property, may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property, real or personal, owned by such person, and shall refuse to make full answer or his criminal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2025. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of the property, the assessor shall ascertain the true amount and value of such property, and assess the property so as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, the property shall be subject to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may assess property. If any person so required by law to assess property for taxation shall neglect or refuse to make proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10396. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, authorized by a statement, oral or written, which is required or any tax or assessment, or who, on behalf of himself or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and assessed the property, may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property, real or personal, owned by such person, and shall refuse to make full answer or his criminal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 1998. Property in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place where real or personal property or where it ought to be listed as in this chapter provided, the assessor, county auditor, county assessor, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different towns in one county, or different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and such place determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor a list of all property, real and personal, and a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of all property, real and personal, held by him possessed or under the control which by law he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or as corporation officer, partner, factor, or agent, or otherwise; and of the central stock exchange, provided in this statement any share owned in the central stock exchange, and the name and its place in this state.

Sec. 2021. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and assessed the property, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property, real or personal, owned by such person, and shall refuse to make full answer or his criminal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of the property, the assessor shall ascertain the true amount and value of such property, and assess the property so as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, the property shall be subject to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may assess property. If any person so required by law to assess property for taxation shall neglect or refuse to make proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10396. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, authorized by a statement, oral or written, which is required or any tax or assessment, or who, on behalf of himself or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and assessed the property, may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property, real or personal, owned by such person, and shall refuse to make full answer or his criminal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 1999. Property and Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to special taxes, or exempt from taxation, or specially classified for purposes of taxation as follows, to wit:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If any such iron ore be located on land in a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the time of assessment the real estate in which iron ore is located other than the iron ore, is assessed and taxed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three (3a), three (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which part of the land in which iron is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the iron is located, and the assessable value of the iron shall be assessed and taxed in accordance with the provisions of the last and the surplus of the two shall be assessed against the land or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Section 2000 of Chapter 218, family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Section 2000 of Chapter 218, family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Section 2000 of Chapter 218, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three (3a) or (3b), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, all tools, implements and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and stocks, all other personal property, all bonds, and securities, whether domestic or foreign, shall be assessed by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class three (3b) and all platted real estate, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for farming purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and fixtures used in agricultural pursuits, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 218, Laws 1933, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty (30) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided for class one (1) hereof, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $2,000.00, the excess shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided for class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the excess shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on bonded debt limitations and determining tax limitations and per capita $5.00 and taxes on property shall be figured at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot; the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
