DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

A. J. Hecht Assessor of the Town of May

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Swanson

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1971. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock or joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the same are not taxed to such companies or corporations in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise employed by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys and other property held by him as trustee, or which may accrue from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed in the township, city, county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the state of Minnesota shall be listed in the county where cut and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county in which such logs and timber are found in the same manner as and with taxes upon the same when such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2004. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of personal property employed in the business of farming, does not reside upon the farm, he shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 218, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including stoves, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or supplying of rooms for hire, shall be not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1929, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2023. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed in the township, city, village, or borough in which such property is located, and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 216, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed in the townships in consideration in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed in the place of limitation at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Guardians and wards. The personal property of a minor (not married) shall be listed and assessed in the place of the guardian residing; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of limitation before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, at his option; and the personal property of persons moving into this state from another state between said dates shall for the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be found, or if it be distributed among several towns or districts in same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, then by agreement in different counties, by the assessors thereof, subject to the decision determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2026. List to be Verified. Every person subject to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, annual property, signed by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of the value of all such personal property in his possession or under his control, which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation, or account of other persons; and no person shall be required to list any property but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the property of a corporation or association which he is required to list and return as its cashier and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in respect thereto, and for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of such, such person shall refuse to make full answer to any material question touching the property of such person or his individual according to the best information and belief.

Sec. 2028. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain such list of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and shall make return of such amount as he believes to be the true amount thereof, and the value so fixed, he shall open and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the assessment showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1927. Property exempt from taxation. Property exempt from taxation by law is same property described in section 1971, necessary to the proper performance of its duties, and not leased or rented to any person, company, or corporation, and view the same and the property thereof.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made on a basis of impaired or reducing taxes, or in connection therewith, shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. That necessitates of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to taxation shall be and not subject to any and not exempt taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value thereof. It shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate upon which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which the ownership is vested in more than one, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of clauses three (3), three "B" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. Provided, that the assessor of the county in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore contained of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land without the ore, shall be assessed and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed and set down separately.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including stoves, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or supplying of rooms for the accommodation of strangers under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1929, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) and class three "c" (3c) hereof, and as provided by class one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer (including all farm products, livestock, poultry, implements and machinery used for the owner in any agricultural pursuit, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1929, shall constitute class three (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and, when in use for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. If the true and full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of the true and full value thereof, provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purposes of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, all real estate in property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 20 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
