ASSESSMENT & TAX LIST

May

1945

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., APR 18 1945

Henry Crocker Assessor of the Town of May

According to the requirements of law, I hereunto deliver to you the Assessment Books for the said

Town of May for the year 1945, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate that has become subject to taxation, since the assessment of May 1, 1944, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess all personal property, and to make such changes in real estate as are required in the odd numbered year, and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing you duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. C. PETERSON
County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1941 as Amended by Laws 1943)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property intrusted, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney. ***

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Interest as otherwise in this chapter provided, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where actually present or resident.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property otherwise listed. All household goods and furniture, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. ***

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of real estate shall be a non-resident, the personal property located and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated, and the real estate, if it is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and other buildings, machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exercised as a public business, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas or petroleum, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district and county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.36. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated.

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property other than personal property lying inside of the corporate limits of any city of the first class, of electric light and power companies, and other electric light and power companies supplying electric power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list the property of his principal, consisting of the state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufactures. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in the business of manufacturing, repairing, or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturing stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.14. Estates of decedents. The personal property of any deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before the appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The power of personal property remaining from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which it is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 at such place in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt or dispute concerning the place where any property or where it should be listed under this chapter provided, the assessor may determine the county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties or places in different counties, by the Department of Taxation. ***

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe to the assessor a statement, verified by his oath, of the value of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. The assessor shall make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he be required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that any person, firm, company, or corporation, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, he shall make such assessment upon the best information or his opinion according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.30. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized to make assessments of property may enter any dwelling or any other proper performance of his duties, enter and dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made on a basis of typewriter or relating to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.11. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty percent of the full and true value thereof. Iron ore shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1, and which certain stockpiles in excess of 150 per cent, dried materials, or which is classified by the iron ore trade as siliceous, blue siliceous, or siliceous-hematite, or (b) is mined by methods other than is mined by open pit methods, and in accordance with good engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration either than crushing or screening or both to make it suitable for commercial blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1 for two taxable years after being mined only, shall be listed and assessed in the taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still unmined and thereafter such ore in stockpiles shall be valued and assessed as provided in this section. Taconite or jaspilite from any mine in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of clauses three, three "b," and four, as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of such real estate shall be determined by the assessor, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 12 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural produces, except as provided in class three "a" and class three "d," stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactures' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, wheelers fixtures or otherwise, except as provided in class four, all property not specifically classified or provided by classes one and three "b" hereof, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Sec. 168.06, Sub. 7. Motor Vehicles which have been  frozen  by the Price Stabilization  shall be assessed and valued at 5 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Section 273.03, Minnesota Statutes 1941. Assessment; Mode. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
