Subdivision 6. Class 5. All personal property, except as otherwise provided by law, shall constitute class five and shall be valued and assessed as provided in this section.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of a decedent, at the time of his death, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the estate of such decedent, as carried on.

Sec. 273.45. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed in the name of such company, as carried on.

Sec. 273.46. Assignments and receipts. Personal property in the hands of a person, at the time of his death, shall be listed and assessed in the name of such person, as carried on.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between counties. Personal property moved between counties, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the county in which it is located at the time of listing.

Sec. 273.48. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

Sec. 273.49. Assessor's oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a true and correct statement of his personal property, he may refuse to make a full discovery under oath, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, he shall be liable to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.50. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement or return for taxation, makes any statement which he knows to be untrue, or which he believes to be untrue, or which he has reason to believe to be untrue, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.51. Assessor's duty. The assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

Sec. 273.52. Assessor's duty. The assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

Sec. 273.53. Assessor's duty. The assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

Sec. 273.54. Assessor's duty. The assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

Sec. 273.55. Assessor's duty. The assessor shall assess such property on the basis of the best information available to him.

East Gull Lake Mill

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter. Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
