6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of agents, by such agent in the name of his principal, as mentioned.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands owned and designed to be transported out of the state shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the county where, on May 1, and all taxes so assessed shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taking district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such of the logs of this state until all shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of nonresident. When the owner of any farm, and the personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed, if in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is located in two or more towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, bedding clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel and jewelry owned by and in use by all persons in the family residence, or furniture, bedding or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2015. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the lands of railroad companies, owned and in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2016. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the city, village or borough in the state where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the city, village or borough in the state where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Sec. 2017. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of taking at the time of his death.

Sec. 2021. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian, or other person, or other person under guardianship, resides, or the ward resides.

Sec. 2026. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of taking before his appointment.

Sec. 2027. Property moved between assessment and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to which he is first called upon by the assessor, A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him in the county, town, or district in which he resides, and be liable for the tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2218. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or notes, the same shall be listed as in this chapter prescribed, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessment shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if listed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and file with the assessor, or assessor, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner which by personal property in his possession or under his control as agent or attorney, or as guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement which it be one of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it be required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list of the property belonging to the person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall estimate such amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value as shall be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person described as listed, of the statement showing the value of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter premises. Any assessor authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 12066. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, or is a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a given rate of taxation shall be classified for purposes of exercising a uniform tax in lieu of levying classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If a mine or pit in which it is located, but at the end is a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the same time is a part of the real estate in which iron ore is located other than iron ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In determining the value of such real estate in which iron ore is found in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land certain of the ore shall be determined against the tract or lot, and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods, furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3a. (3) Agricultural products in the hands of the producer for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural implements, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and class three (3) hereof, and all personal property shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the value of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at the rate of $1,000.00 full and true value. Provided, further, that the first $1,000.00 full and true value of each tract of unplatted real estate shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, except that it be taxed for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, except that it be taxed for the purpose true value shall remain subject to taxation for state purposes, and for the purpose of paying any and all state indebtedness of record prior to and including at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the value of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at the rate of $1,000.00 full and true value. Provided, that the first $1,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and for the purpose of paying any and all state indebtedness of record that said first $1,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuation and of determining tax limitations and net debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured respectively at 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
