4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchant.

Sec. 2006. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, all goods and personal property shall be listed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. * * *

Chap. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property, with or without a not reside therein, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is situated in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925. Household goods. All household goods, clothing, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes or for the use of the family, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2009. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the railroad, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where operated and exclusively controlled by the owner, or by the person owning and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. The personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated. * * *

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies situated outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Department of Taxation in the county where the same is situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, or where the ward resides, or where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The personal property of a person moving from one town or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either town or district in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into a town or district on or after May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another city.

Section 1986. Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall prepare the personal property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and if unknown so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of preparing for such service the necessary forms, and of making a preliminary canvass of the property in their respective counties at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in any direction from the county seat to the place to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt, in case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed, the assessor shall refer the matter to the county board of equalization, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, in different counties, by the Department of Taxation. * * *

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every assessor required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, and a complete list thereof, he may examine such separate statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, which * * * he is required to list and assess in the name of the owner, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, or other person, according to the nature of the property in any other capacity. * * *

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for another, has not listed the same in full, or that he has not listed the same fairly and completely, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and if he is satisfied that the person has not listed the same in full, or that the assessor may list the same in full, he may list the same in full according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such value, and shall deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary for the purpose of making a list of personal property, enter any building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein, and make any statement and assessment which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax on the same, and he shall not be liable for any assessment as to any person or persons who shall willfully make any statement as to the value of any personal property which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 42306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement and assessment, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax on the same, and he shall not be liable for any assessment as to any person or persons who shall willfully make any statement as to the value of any personal property which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general assessment shall be classified for the purpose of determining the tax thereon as follows:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of the year in which it is mined, or (b) is mined by open pit methods, or (c) contains phosphorus in excess of .180 per cent, dried, analyzed, or otherwise prepared for shipment, shall constitute Class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel, and all other articles of personal property, except the implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural, mechanical, or manufacturing business, shall constitute Class three and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a," and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of all persons other than the producer shall constitute class three "b," and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3b. Livestock, poultry, all horses, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural, mechanical, or manufacturing business, shall constitute Class three "c," and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
