DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Leslie Friday Assessor of the Town of Powers

According to the requirements of law I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1986. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock or other evidences of indebtedness, corporations (other than those of this state), mortgages or evidences of indebtedness (other than those of this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as the guardian or trustee of any person residing elsewhere, or all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, or credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is in transit to a place of sale or delivery and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all such property in transit to a place of sale or delivery within the limits of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of personal property pertaining to a farm or farm lands and residing thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated; Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 218, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal and domestic purchases, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 300, Laws of 1923, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the lands of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and controlled by such company, shall be considered as, listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the agent.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or city of electric light and power company, shall be listed and assessed where affiliated without regard to the place of principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 300, Laws 1923. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of any city of electric light and power company shall be listed with and include the corporate limits of villages, cities and towns, and shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property acquired between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving from one county to another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on July 1 each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any person or property should be assessed, the same shall be listed as in this chapter provided, if practicable; if in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and such decision shall be conclusive and shall be as binding as if such hearing.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property taxable in the town, or city, in which he resides. He shall also make corporate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law is taxable in the town, or city, in which he resides, and of all, factory, grocery, hotel, store, warehouse, administrator, or accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and survey the taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and correct statement of the property of such person, under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full and correct statement, he may examine such person under oath, or cause or his probate according to his best information and information.

Sec. 2028. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at the amount so to be believed to be the true value thereof. When so ascertained, he shall state and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the property so ascertained and assessed.

Sec. 2027. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, warehouse, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by any law of this state, shall knowingly or willfully or fraudulently or attempt, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value of property is taxable. Property is classified and subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located; but at the time of the assessment of such real estate it shall be valued at not less than the sum fixed by classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the reasonable value of the ore contained in such tract or lot shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal and domestic purchases, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 300, Laws of 1923, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "b" (3b); stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, except as provided by class three "b" (3b); manufacturing tools, implements and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b); all other personal property not specifically provided for classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or grower, and all livestock, poultry, and all other personal property for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural implements and farm machinery used by the owner in any agricultural operation, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 300, Laws of 1923, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided for class one (1) hereof, also, when is used for the purposes of a home class, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the value of such real estate shall exceed the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of such sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and embedded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 4c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4a. Mortgages, contracts, and other proceeding evidence shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
