DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, APR 15 1947.

Christ Stoll Assessor of the Town of Rogers:

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Assessment Books for the said Town of Rogers for the year 1947, containing a list of all Real Estate that has become subject to taxation since the Assessment of May 1, 1946, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source, and I hereby direct you to assess all Personal Property, and to make such changes in Real Estate as are required in the odd-numbered year, and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

[illegible] County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 272.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property owned, held, or otherwise controlled by him, as agent or attorney, ***.

3. The guardian of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed in his position, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 272.25. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All horse-hair goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and other personal property used by the owner in any manner for domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or refitment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. ***

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town, or district where the farm is located, if the farm be located in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.36. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a local status in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated ***

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property other than personal property lying inside of the corporate limits of any city of the first class, of electric light and electric power, having other individuals and partnerships supplying electric power, being in cities, villages, or boroughs, shall be listed with assessors of villages, cities, and boroughs, and be taxed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant, the product of this state, nor the tax for taxation any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from the sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles purchased, received, or otherwise held for manufacturing, combining, rectifying or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or manufacturing, and every person and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Deceased person; residents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of his dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of taking possession by the assignee.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon to be assessed. A person moving into this state between said dates shall make return of his property for his or May 1 of such year in the county, list the property which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the place where it is situated, or between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe an affidavit annexed upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on the first day of the current year. He shall also make separate statement of all personal property under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that any person, holding property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a true and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list such property and information, or his principal accordingly, to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When practicable he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property assessed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter buildings, etc. Any officer authorized by proper authority to assess for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, outbuilding, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, for the purpose of imposing or reducing or authorized by law to be made as a verity of imposing or reducing any tax, knowingly or willfully or fraudulently make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax, shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section, hereby established for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty cents per ton of its true and full value. If assessed, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate, if it is mined, and if not but at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground mining methods or (b) is mined subsequent to August fourteenth, nineteen hundred forty-two, shall be exempt for the calendar year and prior to the last succeeding May 1, and which contains phosphorus in excess of .150 per cent, dried analysis, or which is classified by the Iron ore trade as siliceous, or (b) gainforous, Mesabi Bessemer, or Mesabi non-Bessemer, or (c) is mined by open pit mining methods and is found, upon mining with good engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration, other than magnetic or jigging or both to make it suitable for commercial blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and pelletized in stockpile subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the last succeeding May 1, shall be exempt for the calendar year only, shall be not assessed and assessed to the taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still unmined, and thereafter such ore in stockpiles shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore, as otherwise provided by law. The real estate in which iron ore is located shall be valued and assessed as provided and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three, three and one-half, and four. There may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessible value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the land.

Class 1b. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnace, in whatever form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of its full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and other personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or replacement of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d," stocks of merchandise of all sorts, raw materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" and all real estate, which is used in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by class three "b" and class three, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33 1/3 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 273.03, Minnesota Statutes 1945. Assessment; Mode. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property. * * *

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. * * *
