EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1931.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property

Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock or other companies or associations, franchises, royalties, and other personal property invested, loaned, or employed by him or her, or held or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property belonging to him or her, and all moneys deposited subject to his or her order, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation.

The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

The property of a firm or company, by a member thereof, or by the proper agent or officer thereof.

The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, if a person, resides, or corporate residence.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within the state shall be listed in the county, town, or district where the same shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where such logs or timber are cut; and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, and such property shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state or other taxes on same, or, if not paid in full, be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district where such logs or timber are cut.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is situated.

Sec. 2008. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of persons, and of the family, and all personal property belonging to the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the same is usually located.

Sec. 2009. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, and used for the storage of grain or other goods, and owned, operated, and controlled exclusively by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal place of business of said company is in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to electric light and power companies in other places of business of said company in this state.

Sec. 2013-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property * * * of electric light and power companies not connected by a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of guardian's residence; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor, if such person moving into this state from another state, between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is bad for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2019. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between different counties, the place for listing personal property shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing personal property shall be determined by the blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall make such statement in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, executor, administrator, trustee, or in any other fiduciary capacity, and shall make any other statement which he is required to include in such statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination of statement. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete statement, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to include in such statement, and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may fix the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value in money. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement about which he has made the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessors may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or other place with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at other times the officer shall not enter any dwelling house.

Sec. 10384. False statements regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis for imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, wilfully shall make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to assessment on gross earnings or other less tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore not released or unleased, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the true and full value.
