DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

APR 15

CASS County, Minn., 1936.

Wm. Peake Assessor of the Town of Platte

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Swanson

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, and all other personal property, and the personal property of each company or corporation, not assessed in this state, money loaned or invested, assessible franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise disposed of by him as agent, guardian, trustee, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of an estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the assessment book, or District where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, and the property of a peddler shall be listed in the county designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and the property so taxed in the taxing district where found shall not be removed beyond the bounds of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, the same shall be assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, shall be exempt from the operation of a family inventory tax except under the provisions of Chapter 300, Laws of 1933, and be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2013. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated and taxed in the same manner as the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1935. Personal property of electric light and power companies, of mine and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough shall be assessed and taxed as provided in Chapter 318, Laws of 1933, and be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of the decedent's decease, if in this state.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where such guardian resides, and every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be moved from one town, or district in another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the town in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year in this property in another state.

Sec. 2020. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any person, property, or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, the place where it shall be assessed, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different towns, districts, or counties, the county auditors of the respective tax districts, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon request, a list of all the taxable personal property of all personal property owned by him, on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of the property belonging to his partnership or business, or under his control which he is required to list for taxation as agent or administrator, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary, or as president, or other officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but if the capital stock of and is include in his statement any share of stock in any company or corporation, the property of which is required to be and return as the central and property for taxation.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not given a true and complete list thereof, he may examine such person upon oath, and request to the amount of the property he is required to list; and if such person shall refuse to make such discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believe to be just; and assess the same at such amount, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. An officer authorized by law to be made use of a tax levy, may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1998. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement of property or income to any officer authorized by law to be made use of a tax levy or income or inheritance tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of a gross inaccuracy which is known to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1996. Classification of Property. What percentages of full value shall be to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class of (11) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the land upon which it is found, at the same rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is buried other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the nature of the surface thereof. If the ore is found in place, the ore may be. In assessing any tract or lot of land or any other property known to be valued the assessable value of the ore underlying the land exclusive of the land is fixed, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore is determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be the assessable value of the land.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts (except those with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactured and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, except those used in agriculture, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery, except those used in agriculture, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a home, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of any such tract or lot of land or any other property shall be in excess of $4,000.00, the excess over $4,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a home, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of any such lot or parcel of land or any other property shall be in excess of $4,000.00 the excess over $4,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

Class 4. All moneys of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by existing laws, shall constitute class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
