In case of doubt as to the place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the district where the property is located, places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing personal property shall be the county board of equalization, and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation ***.

Sec. 273.51. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list personal property, shall make oath and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by the county auditor, a statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also list possession or otherwise in the manner of all personal property in his possession, or under his control, or which he shall have in his possession as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for others, or any officer, agent, or employee of any person, fails to list and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath, in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and, if such person shall refuse to answer such questions, or shall answer evasively, the assessor shall make proper proves or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall make a statement of such amount as he believes to be the true and correct amount, and he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.70. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to increase property for taxation may, when necessary to make any examination, or perform any duties, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view and examine the property therein.

Sec. 613.05. False statement concerning taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, shall knowingly or willfully make any false statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All taxable personal property subject to a general property tax shall be classified as follows, or such other rate as is hereby classified for purposes of taxation and assessment:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) percent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the production of iron and steel products, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property owned by persons boarding or lodging in a dwelling used in the furnishing or management of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. * *

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided in class one, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that grain in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxes.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer, except as provided in class one, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that grain in the hands of the producer shall be exempt from taxes.

Subdivision 6. Class 3b. All livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and other domestic animals, except those specifically classified in other classes shall constitute class three "b" and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 7. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.04. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $7.50 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of seven cents per mile, and each board of review member the sum of $6.00 per day and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1965 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
