EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation.—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or associations, and all other property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state, or invested, or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his ward, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing to any such person, company, or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

7. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or other manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within a manufacturer's state, and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where the same is cut, and such taxes shall be a lien paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district where the same is cut.

Sec. 2005. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of any stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2006-1. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal and household effects belonging to the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or furnishing of any dwelling place which are not used for gain, shall be listed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2011. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not used for gain, operated, and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in cities and villages, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Sec. 2013-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property * * * of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside of corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of guardian residing, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed where the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place which he was first called upon to assess by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for the listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between counties, the place for the listing and assessing shall be determined by the determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed therein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by the county auditor, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter is required to be listed for taxation as the property of any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed, and shall include in his statement any other property which by this chapter is required to be listed; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor which it is required to list and return as the property of such person.

Sec. 2032. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the same, or has not listed the same completely, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the property in his possession which he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and make the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1996. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or collecting taxes or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1981. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax shall be assessed at the following percentages of its full and true value:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. Iron ore is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures thereof, and all manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class three (3) hereof.

Class 4. Real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) hereof.

Class 5. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at the true and full value thereof. (G. L. 1933, Chap. 359)

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 4 property shall be figured at 33⅓% and 40% of the true and full value, respectively.
