DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., 1927.

Dave Conkey Assessor of the Town of Turtle Lake

According to the requirements of law, I hereby deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Turtle Lake Twp for the year 1927, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

G. A. Gates County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or held for investment by him, or in his hands or possession, on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of persons engaged in the business of trading or manufacture shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all logs and timber so found shall be assessed and taxed in the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, the property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in its town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1921. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the owner, if known, and if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2010. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the name of the owner, at the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 256, Laws 1921. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies operating outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall assess it either in which he is first called upon for the assessment, or in the county into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resided on said date, or he may make it subject to the tax levy that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing any personal property, or if it is not listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, and if between counties in different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property in his possession or under his control, which he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law he is required to list elsewhere than in the town, city or district, specifying, namely, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, and of whom shall be required to include in his statement any share of or capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to include and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not given a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person touching his ownership in the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make such disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and kind of such property, and assess the same at such valuation as he shall deem just and reasonable, and the list so created, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, as a basis of increasing or reducing the amount of taxes to be levied upon property, shall wilfully state as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. What necessitates of full and true value. Class 1. Land, lots, buildings, structures and improvements subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Trees are whether mixed or unmixed, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmixed, it shall be assessed at the rate of ten (10) per cent of its true and full value, and if at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which lots are in less than one acre, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which there is a dwelling house, the assessor shall include in the valuation of the land in which it is located, and the reasonable value of the land exclusive of the one, shall be determined and set forth separately in the assessment of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for class three "A" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all manufacture, together with the furniture and fixtures used therein, stocks of materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, except as provided for class three "A" (3a) as provided for class three "A" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided for class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used in the production of such agricultural products shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statues of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
