8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and other articles of household use, and all other personal property for domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such farm is located; and if such farm be in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled, or operated by such railroad company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.36. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies, other than personal property lying inside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.37. Merchants' Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state therein the value of its property principally held on consignment, and the consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.38. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state therein the value of all utilities purchased, or in process of manufacture for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, restoring or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used in his business, and all other personal property, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor, under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing of the property of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor; A person moving into this state from another state between May 1 and July 1 shall list the property owned by him on May 1 in the district in which he resides on the day he moves into this state; he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, it between districts in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make set and affirm to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner,  for the property of any other person, for which he is required to make return, or list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person or persons, firm or company, or for any other person, by whom any return, list or statement, or for any other person, list thereof, be they examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may make such return or statement at his principal place of business, independent and informed.

Sec. 273.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of a failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 272.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, and, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax, assessment or levy, or in any claim for refund of any tax, shall wilfully make any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Have classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other like tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore. Iron ore mined and manufactured shall constitute Class 1. Iron ore shall be valued and assessed at fifty percent of its true and full value. If manufactured, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the date of assessment of such year, or (b) is mined by open pit methods in excess of 150 per cent, direct haulage, or which is classified by the iron ore state as siliceous, ferruginous, Mesabi Bessemer, or Mesabi non-Bessemer ore, or (b) is mined by open pit methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to September 30 of a calendar year, in accordance with good engineering and mining practice, or both to make it suitable for blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and placed in stockpile subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1 for two taxable years after being mined only, shall be listed and assessed in the taxing district where mined at the rate aforesaid, but if such iron ore is subsequently manufactured and therefrom such ore is stockpiles shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore, as otherwise provided by law. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three, three (a) and three (b) of this section. The assessor shall value the real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed as the value of the land.

Class 1a. All iron products of the blast and open hearth furnace, not specifically mentioned in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and other articles of household use, and all other personal property for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d," stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with all manufacturing materials, all tools, implements, machinery, and manufactured articles, all tools, implements, machinery, and other fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" and all real estate, which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d" and assessed at 30 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer, shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
