Cass County, Minn., April 9 1929.

M. N. Koll Assessor of the Town of Unorganized Ts.

According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

A. A. Cater County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of the county, town, or district where the property is assessed, shall list the stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as guardian, trustee, or other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys, debts, and other personal property, which he shall receive, collect, or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and taken to, a different district from that in which the owner resides, and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county and school district in which the owner resides, in the same manner, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is located, and if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1923. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used in the furnishing and domestic purposes for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2009. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled, or operated by such company, or its lessees, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the county, town, or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough shall be listed and assessed and taxed upon a fixed situs without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of facing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the place in which he is last called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list and be assessed in the county, town, or district in which he resides, or, if he shall make his residence within the same, he shall cause it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, it shall be listed and assessed as directed by the commissioner of the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a true and complete list of all the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall make such statements in like manner of all personal property held by him as agent or attorney, or in any other capacity for another, as is required to be listed for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or in any other capacity for any other person. But no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation, which such person has listed and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any agent, attorney, or other person who has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may require such person, under oath in regard to the amount of the property, and shall examine such person touching the same; and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such valuation, and if the same be not paid when the tax thereon is collected, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property may enter any dwelling, outhouse, or building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10300. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of impeding or reducing any tax or assessment, shall make any false or fraudulent statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other in lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute one class and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its full and true value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which iron ore is located at the date aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, with the iron ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the use and character of the surface of the land, as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore contained in such tract or lot shall be added to the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used in the furnishing and domestic purposes for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures, tools, implements, supplies and machinery used in manufacturing articles, all tools, implements and machinery and fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), all personal property not elsewhere as provided by class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery in the owner's or farmer's agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Laporte Minn July 30-29

Mr. A A Cates Walker Mn

My dear Cates

You Letter of inquiry To Martha Goss was Held up by the post for the reason That She is in Calif. She changed her name to Mrs. Mrs Charles Hess 18 Months ago unfortunately She does own some land in 144-30 but never Sold any to W A Woodford or any one Else but No doubt would Like too on the other Hand I Sold Him a Small Tract one or Two years ago Which no doubt is the Piece you refer to but you have wrong description it Should be Lot One Section 1 143-30 - (I believe)

He might also have bought in that vicinity from other People but I think his Title House sets on above Description

Truly J H Goss

July 26, 1929.

Martha E. Goss,

Cass Lake, Minn.

My dear Miss Goss:-

At your early convenience will you kindly advise the description of the property which was purchased by A. W. Woodford, from you, in Twp. 144, Rge. 30?

The assessor has reported the addition of a building on this property but he was not sure of the description and as Mr. Woodford has not as yet placed his deed on record, I am unable to check the matter from this end.

Thanking you, I am

Yours very truly,

ELO

County Auditor.
