7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of merchants and manufacturers shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where its business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and located in the taxing district of the town of Duluth, and rafted and floated in the taxing district when found on July 1st and of the current year shall be paid into the different funds of the county and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of the state until such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of any farm or other personal property connected with a farm lives out of state, such property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such farm or other property is situated, and assessed in rural form or district, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, musical instruments, and all personal property used by the owner for personal use, and all personal property used for the purpose of the family residence not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 350, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2015. Carriers, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and implements belonging thereto, owned and used by any company which are not in good faith owned, leased and operated by such company, shall be listed and assessed, in the district where the same are situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, of the agent thereof.

Sec. 2017. Property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed place of business in cities and villages shall be listed and assessed by the assessor of the district where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 204, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed place of business outside of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignee and receiver. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of the assignee.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved between May and July, from one county, town, or district to another between said times and prior to July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon for the assessment of such property, or in the county, town or district from which such property was taken and there shall the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can not be listed in the manner prescribed, if between places in the same county, the place where such property is usually kept, to be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the state board of equalization, such determination in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of personal property in his possession on the May 1 of the current year. He shall also make a similar statement of the current year personal property in his possession, in the manner of all persons who are required to list for taxation as agent, or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accountant officer, bailee, or other person, and every such person shall be required to include in his statement any claim of from capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2026. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for the owner, or other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair and complete statement of such property, he may examine under oath in regard to the amount of the property such person, company, or corporation owns, and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of such property, the assessor may make an estimate of such property, or his personal knowledge to the best information and information.

Sec. 2028. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and the same shall be assessed as he shall see fit to be the true value thereof. He shall make and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessors may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property may enter any dwelling, house, tenement, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10326. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which shall be required by any law of this state, or made as a basis of imposing or enforcing any tax or assessment, shall willfully make any statement false in a material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value of property shall be taxed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and all real and personal property assessed or subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined it shall be taxed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, except that the ore, shall be classified and valued, iron ore in bonded other provisions of clauses three (3), three (3) and four (4) of section 1992, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 365, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 2. All platted real estate, except as provided by clause one (1) hereof, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by clause one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by clause one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead, and all platted real estate which is used for the purpose of a homestead, shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, If the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $2,000.00 for any one homestead, such excess shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and assessed debt limitations now or hereafter existing, tax limitations and section 20 and class 3c property shall be figured at 20% of the true and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 3a. All unplatted real estate, except as provided in the preceding clauses shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
