Chap. 206, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages, and of electric light and power companies having a fixed place of business outside of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2017. Assignee and receiver. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of his office, his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one county, town, or district to another between May and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon after the removal, for the whole of the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can not be listed in the manner provided, if between places in the same county, the place where the property is usually kept, or, if in another by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the state tax commission, the place so determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of such property, including all property on hand on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of the current year personal property in his possession, in the manner of all persons, firms, or companies, for whom he is assessed as agent, factor, trustee, guardian, or executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, bailee, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or other person shall be required to include in his statement of property of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list, and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall have reason to assume that the person listing property for himself, or for or by another person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and true statement of such property, he may require such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property so listed or not, and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure, the assessor may estimate the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and belief.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and the assessment shall be entered as he believes to be the true value thereof. When completed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessors may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property, may enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10208. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by any tax or assessment law, or as a basis of imposing or collecting any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value of real and personal property subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation is as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined it shall constitute class one and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, mined with the ownership of the land, or severed from the land by lease, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "a" (3a) and three "b" (3b) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which the ownership is to what the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land is to be determined and set forth separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the property.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the family residence, shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, except as provided by classes four (4) and five (5) thereof, materials and manufacturing articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or not, except as provided by classes six (6) and seven (7) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "a" (3a) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer for agricultural sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used exclusively for agricultural purposes, except as provided under the provisions of Chap. 206, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and all platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class "3b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof, provided, if the value of any such unplatted real estate is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of $4,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead, shall constitute class "3b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof, provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of $4,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now determined by tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now determined by tax limitations, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 20% and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Personal property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
