Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May and July, shall be listed and assessed in the place in which he is first called upon for the assessment. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list and assess his property in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless it shall appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any person or property should be listed or where it can not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, a statement verified by his oath, of the property, real and personal, owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all property owned by any firm or company of which he is a member. Lists thus completed, to be delivered to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assuming officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the property of his ward or principal, unless required so to do, or called to list and return as the capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2023. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and true statement of the property listed, he may require the person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2025. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When ascertained, he shall make and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the list, with the value and assessment of the property added.

Sec. 1987. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 12505. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is false in any material fact which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1994. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other form tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but if the iron ore is located in more than one taxing district, the assessment within the one, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3); three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. If the iron ore is located in more than one county, the iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. Iron ore mined or unmined, taconite, taconite products, mining instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, agricultural implements of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts (whether with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturing machinery, implements, tools, and dies, and all other tools and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three (3) and class four (4) shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farm implements and machinery, whether used for the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three (3) and class four (4) shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. If the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $1,000.00 per acre, the same shall be classified and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof: Provided, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of each tract of unplatted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation and the balance of such tract of platted real estate shall be the true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class two (2) and class four (4) shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the same shall be classified and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof: Provided, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of each tract of platted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation and the balance of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and the balance of such platted real estate shall be subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuation, the assessed valuation of property classified in the twenty-five (twenty-five) per cent classification or in excess of the thirty-three (33) per cent classification, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors or on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
