FORM No. 1

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn. APR 26 1935.

Alfred Peterson Assessor of the Town of Walden IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1935, and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereunto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

L. Erickson County Auditor.

EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation.—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1, in the year of the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by and of the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies, or associations, and all other personal property not exempt from taxation in this state, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company, or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or a person under guardianship shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which such logs and timber shall be found, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the bounds of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of lands in this state, or property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2008-1. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of the family, and all personal property, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., not regarded as real. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2012-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property * * * of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed in the town or tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he may be called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the place where situated, or if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if the place of listing.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property in his possession or under his control on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, as mentioned in this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assignee, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination on oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property so listed, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of property for taxation, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the property. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the premises appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 2032. Statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which shall be found to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1981. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax shall be subject to ad valorem taxes or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value thereof. Taxes on iron ore in lieu of ad valorem taxes shall be a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. The value of the ore shall be deemed to be the value of the real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of the equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unmatured real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
