DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

1928

APR 23 1928

Frank S. Allen, Assessor of the Village of Pillager

IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1928, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

W. A. Golden, County Auditor.

W. A. Golden, County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real property in this state, and all personal property of persons therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

son under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 1984. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

Sec. 1937. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations when the property of such corporations or money loaned or invested in this state) money loaned or invested in annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

Sec. 1036. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to the value of the real estate in which such tax is levied, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or trustee of another person, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not tax is hereinafter classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

3. The property of a minor child or infant person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, the assessment shall be based on the part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located shall be determined by the land and exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, books, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a", (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a", (3a), and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and three "a", (3a), shall constitute class three and be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the producer in agricultural pursuits, shall constitute class three "a", (3a), and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4), and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent, partner, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or coacting officer; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

9. The property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed, and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is conducted. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district and of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed, and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2007. Personal property. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2009. Personal property in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having offices situated outside the limits of cities, villages or boroughs, shall be listed and assessed by the principal or other place of business of said company or located.

Sec. 2010. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed, where situated, without regard to whether the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2011. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed, where situated, without regard to whether the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed, where situated, without regard to whether the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2013. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed, where situated, without regard to whether the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person, shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May 1 and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in this county, town, or district in which he resides; and he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be ascertained from the provisions of these sections, the assessor may provide for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent, partner, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or coacting officer; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person
