DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Assessor of the Village of Pera

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Persons Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1994. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1995. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock or joint stock in other companies or corporations (when the stock, bonds, or shares of a corporation is not assessed in this state), moneys loaned or invested, securities, annuities, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property intrusted, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, or receiver, and all money deposited subject to his order, drawn or drafted, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in more.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of vendees, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is in transit to market, or is held, stored, and designed to be transported out of this state, shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on the first day of May; taxes shall be paid into the different funds of the county of this state, county, and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien on such property, and such property shall not be removed beyond the bounds of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2004. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated; but if it appears that the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed at the place of business of such owner, or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1921. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be exempt from taxation. Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2005. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures in and appurtenant to the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith leased to and operated by a company not controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as owner unknown.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Every person, company or corporation owning or operating a plant or system of electric light and power in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages shall be listed and taxed by the municipal tax commission, in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor, insane person, or other person under guardianship, shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of such minor or other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business of such assignee or receiver.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one town or district to another in this state between the first day of May and the first day of July, shall be assessed in either town or district, at his option, by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the assessor, that he is a bona fide resident of some other place in this state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it may not be listed as in this chapter provided, if before or after it is assessed, it appears that it should be assessed elsewhere than as listed, the county board of equalization and assessing shall be different counties, or assessors of equalization and if between different towns, or districts in the same county, the county board of equalization, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list upon blanks furnished shall make out and deliver to the assessor, signed and verified by the oath of the person listing, a list of the personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all other property required to be listed by him in the same county which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver or in any other capacity; but in listing in his statement any share of the capital stock of any corporation, he shall deduct from the value thereof the value of the property and credits required to be listed in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a single, full, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath, in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and the value thereof, and may require such person to subscribe and make oath, the assessor being first sworn, that the property of such person, company, or corporation, is not over-listed according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall proceed to ascertain as near as he can such property, and assess the same at such amount as he shall deem the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person listing a duplicate of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2037. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer assessor, or other person authorized by law to make assessments, may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10336. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, being required by or under the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise authorized by law to be made on a blank, a statement concerning any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make such statement false in any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax shall be listed and assessed for taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the place where it is located, but if the ore is located in two or more towns or districts in which iron ore is located, but at the place where it is located in the town or district in which the ore is located, but at the place where it is located in the town or district in which iron ore is located, but at the place where it is located in the town or district in which the most ore is located. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is located, the value of the ore shall be added to the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessors, sitting as a board of land exchange of the one shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be exempt from taxation, except as provided in Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class one (1), (2a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and products, except as provided in class one (1), and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all registered real estate, except as provided in class one (1), class two (2), class four (4), shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-three and one-third (23⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural implements, except as provided in class one (1) and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all motor vehicles, implements and machinery for farm use, any agricultural implements not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three-a (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All assessed real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the excess in excess thereof shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead, shall constitute class 4; and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the excess in excess thereof shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on bonded debt limitations, or determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations, or determining debt limitations or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at forty (40) per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
