1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the same of his principal, all property and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, ***.

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whom benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter specifically provided, property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or settlement of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm be situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and extensively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the transportation of  petroleum and its products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.35. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated ***.

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property, other than personal property lying inside of the corporate limits of any city of the first class, of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships engaging electric power, to the extent that such property has a fixed situs outside of any city, village or borough, shall be listed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants Consignees. Every merchant required to list his personal property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of an article purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or distilling, and the value of all stock in trade, machinery, tools, and implements of any kind shall be, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place where the decedent last resided.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor; A person moving into this state from another state between May 1 and July 1 shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of the county, town, or district in which he shall reside on July 1; Provided, he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has held for at the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between towns in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; if between counties, county commissioners, or places , shall be determined by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.5. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall make separate statements in the manner of all property he is required to list in his capacity as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a fair, full and complete listing of the property owned by such person, company, or corporation, he may call upon the person so listing property, and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, any dwelling carry to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or refunding any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make a false statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax, shall be hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined and assessed at city shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value thereof. If mined, it shall be assessed on and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid, iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequently to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding July 1, and which contains less than 51 per cent of iron, or (b) is classified by the iron ore trade as siliceous, Manganiferous, Manganiferous, Manganifer
