According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1939, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Chapman

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock company or association, and all other kinds of property of such company or corporation, not assessed in this state, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all property of his principal, of which he shall have the care, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor or other person under guardian shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 1993. WHERE LISTED. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2025. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, and of persons engaged in business shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of the state, shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district of the state on May 1 and all such logs and timber shall be taxed in different counties of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien shall be enforced against the holders of title state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the county where such farm is situated, and if such farm or any part of farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually located.

Sec. 2026. Elevators, etc. on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, and used in the business of such company, shall be assessed separately as such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. In any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the principal place of business of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moving from one county, town, or district between May 1 and July 1. The owner of personal property moving from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon for the assessment. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list and assess such property in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any person or property should be listed, or if not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization, and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, when requested, a list of all the property, real and personal, owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, as agent, trustee, guardian, or in any other fiduciary capacity, and in a fiduciary capacity, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, trustee, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of a corporation, association, or company required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation has not made a true statement of the property owned by him, he may, if he deems it fail, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person at his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the assessment, with the value of the property assessed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 11265. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax, shall wilfully make any statement of any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or license tax tax is hereby classified for purposes of assessment as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value thereof, exclusive of improvements and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the same may be applicable thereto. The value of the real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land in which it is located, shall be separately assessed and listed and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, sewing instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2), and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and all implements and tools, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactures' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any business or occupation, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All implements, machinery, tools and tools of whatever kind and kind, all horse-drawn and horse-operated implements for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unsitted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such real estate shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that sold first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the adoption hereof.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of such platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes except that sold first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject and be taxed for purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the adoption hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and class 3a shall be figured at ten (10) per cent thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
